Authorization for Release of Credit Reports

Pursuant to Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) of 1970, as Amended

Please take notice: NASA may obtain one or more consumer credit reports for employment related purposes, including employment, promotion, reassignment, and retention, as well as access to classified information. Any consumer credit report will be obtained and used consistent with the requirements set forth in the Fair Credit Reporting Act, as amended, 15 U.S.C. 1681, et seq.

Your name, social security number, and date and place of birth, may be furnished to consumer reporting agency(s) in order to obtain information in connection with an investigation to determine your (1) fitness for Federal employment, (2) suitability to perform contractual service for the Federal Government, and/or (3) security clearance or access adjudication. On a case by case basis, other personal identifying information may be provided to a consumer reporting agency, as needed to resolve identity issues. The information obtained may be disclosed to other Federal agencies for the above purposes and in fulfillment of official responsibilities to the extent that such disclosure is permitted by law.

NASA will not take any action against you based in whole or in part upon the credit report without first providing you a copy of the report and a written description of your rights as described by the Federal Trade Commission under Section 1681g (c)(3) of title 15.

Should you elect not to authorize the release of your consumer credit information, your eligibility for employment, contractual service, or security clearance or access may be adversely affected.

Release Authorization:

By my signature below, I hereby authorize NASA to obtain my credit report(s) from any consumer/credit reporting agency for the duration of my association with NASA. I also authorize the release to NASA of any medical information maintained as defined by FCRA by a consumer/credit reporting agency. I understand that NASA will use all of the released information in accordance with the conditions and requirements set forth by the Fair Credit Reporting Act for the specific purposes listed above.

My consent for the release of this information is entirely voluntary and I understand that I may revoke this authority at any time except to the extent that it has been acted upon.
